How sweet the name of Jesus sounds

JOHN NEWTON

HOLY CROSS

FELIX B. MENDELSSOHN

1 How sweet the name of Je - sus sounds In a be - liev - er's ear!
 2 It makes the wound-ed spir - it whole, And calms the troub - led breast;
 3 Weak is the ef - fort of my heart, And cold my warm - est thought;
 4 Till then I would Thy love pro - claim With ev - 'ry fleet - ing breath;

It soothes his sor - rows, heals his wounds, And drives a - way his fear.
 'Tis man - na to the hun - gry soul, And to the wea - ry, rest.
 But when I see Thee as Thou art, I'll praise Thee as I ought.
 And may the mu - sic of Thy name Re - fresh my soul in death. A - MEN.

Mighty God, while angels bless Thee

AUTUMN

F. H. BARTHELEMON

1 Might-y God, while an-gels bless Thee, May a mor-tal lisp Thy name?
 2 For the gran-deur of Thy na-ture, Grand be-yond a seraph's thought;
 3 But Thy rich, Thy free re-demp-tion, Bright, tho' veiled in darkness long,— 4 From the high-est throne of glo-ry, To the cross of deep-est woe,

Lord of men, as well as an-gels, Thou art ev-'ry creature's theme.
 For the won-ders of cre-a-tion, Works with skill and kindness wrought;
 Thought is poor, and poor ex-pres-sion,—Who can sing that wondrous song?
 Thou didst stoop to ran-som cap-tives; Flow my praise, for-ev-er flow.

Lord of ev-'ry land and na-tion, An-cient of e-ter-nal days,
 For Thy prov-i-dence that gov-erns Thro' Thine em-pire's wide do-main, Brightness of the Fa-ther's glo-ry, Shall Thy praise un-ut-tered lie?
 Re-as-cend, im-mor-tal Sav-iour, Leave Thy foot-stool, take Thy throne, Sound-ed thro' the wide cre-a-tion Be Thy just and end-less praise.

 Wings an an-gel, guides a sparrow, Bless-ed be Thy gen-tle reign.
 Break, my tongue, such guilty silence! Sing the Lord who came to die.
 Thence re-turn, and reign for-ev-er: Be the kingdom all Thine own! A-MEN.

CHARLES BURNEY

 2 For - ev - er firm Thy jus-tice stands, As mountains their foun-da-tions keep;
 3 My God, how ex - cel-lent Thy grace, Whence all our hope and com-fort spring;
 4 Life, like a fountain rich and free, Springs from the pres-ence of my Lord;

Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud, That veils and darkens Thy designs.
 Wise are the wonders of Thy hands; Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
 The sons of A-dam in dis-tress Fly to the shad-ow of Thy wing.
 And in Thy light our souls shall see The glo-ries prom-ised in Thy word. AMEN.

 4 Then shall I see, and hear, and know All I de-sired or wished be-low;

To show Thy love by morning light, And talk of all Thy truth at night.
 Thy works of grace, how bright they shine! How deep Thy counsels, how divine!
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed, Like ho-ly oil to cheer my head.
 And ev-'ry pow'r find sweet em-ploy In that e-ter-nal world of joy. A-MEN.

SALVE DOMINE

1 Light of the world, we hail Thee, Flush-ing the east-ern skies;
 2 Light of the world, Thy beau-ty Steals in-to ev-'ry heart,
 3 Light of the world, be-fore Thee Our spir-its pros-trate fall;
 4 Light of the world, il-lu-mine This dark-ened land of Thine,

Nev-er shall darkness veil Thee A-gain from hu-man eyes;
 And glo-ri-fies with du-ty Life's poor-est, hum-blest part;
 We wor-ship, we a-dore Thee, Thou Light, the Life of all;
 Till ev-'ry-thing that's hu-man, Be filled with what's Di-vine;

Too long, a-las! with-hold-en, Now spread from shore to shore;
 Thou rob-est in Thy splen-dor The sim-ple ways of men,
 With Thee is no for-get-ting Of all Thine hand hath made;
 Till ev-'ry tongue and na-tion, From sin's do-min-ion free,

Thy light, so glad and gold-en, Shall set on earth no more.
 And help-est them to ren-der Light back to Thee a-gain.
 Thy ris-ing hath no set-ting, Thy sun-shine hath no shade.
 Rise in the new cre-a-tion Which springs from Love and Thee. A-MEN.

Hark! what joyful notes are swelling

Christian Hymn Book

Dedicated to Miss Jane R. Errett

T. B. MOSLEY

1. Hark! what joy - ful notes are swell - ing On the qui - et mid-night air!
2. See all dark-ness dis - ap - pear - ing, As the Star be - gins to rise!
3. Rise and shine, Star of sal - va - tion! Spread thy beams o'er all the earth,
4. When our days on earth are end - ed, And we rise to worlds a - bove,

'Tis the voice of an - gels tell - ing Je - sus comes our sins to bear!
 Sin and Death stand, trembling, fearing, As the light fall on their eyes;
 Till each dis - tant land and na - tion Owns and speaks Thy matchless worth!
 Then our songs shall all be blend - ed In one song of par-d'ning love!

Now the mu - sic, in its glad - ness, Breaks and swells, and glides a-long!
 Now, a - gain, the earth re - joic - es, Sa - tan's pow'r-ful kingdom shakes,
 Till all tongues, Thy praises sing - ing, Shall Thy might-y won-ders tell,
 Then we'll tell the wond'rous sto - ry, And our bless-ed Lord a - dore!

Now earth, wak-ing from her sad - ness, Joins the cho - rus of the song!
 As, from all the heav'nly voic - es, Loud - er still the cho - rus breaks!—
 Till all heav'n with joy is ring - ing, As our hearts the cho - rus swell:—
 In our home of bliss and glo - ry We shall sing for - ev - er - more!—

CHORUS

Of Je - sus' birth and peace on earth The an - gels sing al - way.

 3 Strengthened by Thee we for-ward go, 'Mid smile or scoff of friend or foe,
 4 O Mas-ter, point Thou out the way, Nor suf-fer Thou our steps to stray;

Our staff, our buck-ler, and our sword, We fol - low Thee.
 Thro' life's strange windings, dark or bright, We fol - low Thee.
 Thro' pain or ease, thro' joy or woe, We fol - low Thee.
 Then in the path that leads to day We fol - low Thee.

 5 Take, my soul, thy full sal - va - tion; Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;

 Hu - man hearts and looks de-ceive me; Thou art not, like them, un - true:

 Whilst Thy grac-es shall a - dorn me, God of wis - dom, love and might,

 O 't is not in grief to harm me, While Thy love is left to me;
 Think what Spir-it dwells with-in thee; What a Fa-ther's smile is thine;
 Soon shall close thy earth - ly mis-sion, Swift shall pass thy pil - grim days,

Yet how rich is my con - di - tion, God and heav'n are still my own.
 Foes may hate, and friends may scorn me; Show Thy face, and all is bright.

 4 Sav-iour, if of Zi-on's cit-y I, thro' grace, a mem-ber am,

He whose word can-not be bro-ken, Formed thee for His own a-bode.
 Well sup-ply thy sons and daugh-ters, And all fear of want re-move.
 Ju-dah's tem-ple far ex-cel-ling, Beam-ing with the Gos-pel's light.
 Let the world de-ride or pit-y, I will glo-ry in Thy Name.

On the Rock of A-ges found-ed, What can shake thy sure re-pose?
 Who can faint, while such a riv-er Ev-er flows their thirst t'as-suage;
 Round her hab-i-ta-tion hov'-ring, See the cloud and fire ap-pear,
 Fad-ing is the world-ling's pleas-ure, All his boast-ed pomp and show;

With sal-va-tion's walls sur-round-ed, Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
 Grace which, like the Lord, the giv-er, Nev-er fails from age to age?
 For a glo-ry and a cov-ring, Show-ing that the Lord is near.
 Sol-id joys and last-ing treas-ure None but Zi-on's children know. AMEN.

 2 Not the la-lor of my hands Can ful-fil the law's de-mands;
 D. C.—All for sin could not a-tone—Thou must save, and Thou a-lone.

Let the wa-ter and the blood, From Thy riv-en side which flowed,
 Could my zeal no res-pite know, Could my tears for-ev-er flow,

3 Nothing in my hand I bring;
 Simply to Thy cross I cling;
 Naked, come to Thee for dress;
 Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly:
 Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When my heart-strings break in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in Thee.

 4 "'Tis finished!" let the joy-ful sound Be heard thro' all the na-tions round;

"'Tis finished!" yes, the race is run, The bat-tle fought, the vic-t'ry won.

Through the night of doubt and sorrow

B. S. INGEMANN

WILLIAM S. BAMBRIDGE

1 Thro' the night of doubt and sor-row On-ward goes the pil-grim band,
 2 One, the light of God's own pres-ence, O'er His ran-somed peo-ple shed,
 3 One, the strain which lips of thou-sands Lift as from the heart of one;
 4 On-ward there-fore, pil-grim broth-ers, On-ward, with the cross our aid;

Sing-ing songs of ex-pec-ta-tion, March-ing to the prom-ised land.
 Chas-ing far the gloom and ter-ror, Bright'ning all the path we tread:
 One the con-flict, one the per-il, One, the march in God be-gun:
 Bear its shame, and fight its bat-tle, Till we rest be-neath its shade.

Clear be-fore us thro' the dark-ness Gleams and burns the guid-ing light;
 One, the ob-ject of our jour-ney, One, the faith which nev-er tires,
 One, the glad-ness of re-joicing On the far e-ter-nal shore,
 Soon shall come the great a-wak-ing; Soon the rend-ing of the tomb;

Broth-er clasps the hand of broth-er, Stepping fear-less thro' the night.
 One, the ear-nest look-ing for-ward, One, the hope our God in-spires.
 Where the One Al-might-y Fa-ther Reigns in love for-ev-er-more.
 Then, the scatt'ring of all shad-ows, And the end of toil and gloom. A-MEN.

SERENITY

WILLIAM V. WALLACE

1 There is a fold whence none can stray, And pas-tures ev-er green,
 2 Far up the ev-er-last-ing hills, In God's own light it lies;
 3 Soon at His feet my soul will lie In life's last struggling breath;
 4 Far from this guilt-y world to be, Ex-empt from toil and strife,

Where sul-try sun, or storm-y day, Or night, is nev-er seen.
 His smile its vast di-men-sion fills With joy that nev-er dies.
 But I shall on-ly seem to die,— I shall not taste of death.
 To spend e-ter-ni-ty with Thee, My Sav-iour, this is life. A - MEN.

GEORGE F. ROOT

1 { There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign; } There ev-er-last-ing spring abides,
 { In - fin-ite day excludes the night, And pleasures ban-ish pain. }

And nev-er-with'ring flow'rs; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heav'nly land from ours. A - MEN.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
 Stand dressed in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan rolled between.
 But timorous mortals start and shrink
 To cross this narrow sea,
 And linger, shivering, on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.

3 O could we make our doubts remove,
 Those gloomy doubts that rise,
 And see the Canaan that we love,
 With unbecclouded eyes—
 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the shore.

 2 I sing the good-ness of the Lord, That filled the earth with food;
 3 Lord, how Thy won-ders are dis-played Wher-e'er I turn mine eye,

That spread the flow-ing seas a-broad, And built the loft-y skies.
 He formed the crea-tures with His word, And then pro-nounced them good.
 If I sur-vey the ground I tread, Or gaze up-on the sky!

I sing the wis-dom that or-dained The sun to rule the day;
 There's not a plant or flow'r be-low But makes Thy glo-ries known;
 Crea-tures, as num'rous as they be, Are sub-ject to Thy care;

The moon shines full at His com-mand, And all the stars o-bey.

REDEMPTION

MARIA L. CHERUBINI

1 Lord, my weak tho't in vain would climb To search the star-ry vault pro-found;
 2 But weak-er yet that tho't must prove To search Thy great e-ter-nal plan,—
 3 When my dim rea-son would de-mand Why that, or this, Thou dost or-dain,
 4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast, And all is dark as night to me,
 5 Be this my joy, that ev-er-more Thou rul-est all things at Thy will:

In vain would wing her flight sublime, To find cre-a-tion's out-most bound.
 Thy sov'reign counsels, born of love Long a-ges ere the world be-gan.
 By some vast deep I seem to stand, Whose secrets I must ask in vain.
 Here, as on sol-id rock, I rest; That so it seem-eth good to Thee.
 Thy sov'reign wis-dom I a-dore, And calm-ly, sweet-ly trust Thee still. A-MEN.

1 Lord, Thy glo - ry fills the heav - en; Earth is with its ful - ness stored;
 2 Ev - er thus in God's high prais-es, Breth-ren, let our tongues u - nite,
 3 Lord, Thy glo - ry fills the heav - en; Earth is with its ful - ness stored;

Un - to Thee be glo - ry giv - en, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord!
 While our tho'ts His greatness rais - es, And our love His gifts ex - cite:
 Un - to Thee be glo - ry giv - en, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord!

Heav'n is still with an-thems ring-ing; Earth takes up the an - gels' cry,
 With His ser - aph train be - fore Him, With His ho - ly Church be - low,
 Thus Thy glo - rious name con - fess - ing, We a - dopt the an - gels' cry,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, sing - ing, Lord of hosts, Thou Lord most high.
 Thus u - nite we to a - dore Him, Bid we thus our an - them flow.
 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, bless - ing Thee, the Lord our God most high! A-MEN.

SAMUEL DYER

1 With glo-ry clad, with strength arrayed, The Lord, that o'er all na - ture reigns,
 2 How sure es - tab - lished is Thy throne, Which shall no change or per - iod see!
 3 The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice, And toss the troub - led waves on high;
 4 Thy promise, Lord, is ev - er sure, And they that in Thy house would dwell,

The world's foundations strongly laid, And the vast fab - ric still sus - tains.
 For Thou, O Lord, and Thou a - lone, Art God from all e - ter - ni - ty.

 That hap - py sta - tion to se - cure, Must still in ho - li - ness ex - cel. A - MEN.

 3 For me the cross and shame to bear, Dear Sav-iour, Thou wast will-ing;

He leads us thro' this hal-low'd wave, To His ex-am-ple cleav-ing.
 He saved my soul, and left His Word to guide me now and ev-er.

 On souls that fol-low Christ shall break The Spirit's beam of glo-ry. A-MEN.

Who veiled Himself in mor-tal clay, And in a hum-bles man-ger lay.
 With joy they trace the sa-cred way, To see the place where Je-sus lay.
 Heav'n owned the deed, approved the way, And blessed the place where Jesus lay.

O for a heart to praise my God

CHARLES WESLEY

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY

1 O for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free!
 2 A heart re-signed, sub-mis-sive, meek, My great Re-deem-er's throne;
 3 A hum-ble, low-ly con-trite heart, Be-liev-ing, true, and clean,
 4 A heart in ev-'ry thought re-newed, And full of love di-vine;
 5 Thy na-ture, gra-cious Lord, im-part; Come quickly from a-bove;

A heart that al-ways feels Thy blood, So free-ly spilt for me!
 Where on-ly Christ is heard to speak, Where Je-sus reigns a-lone;
 Which nei-ther life nor death can part From Him that dwells with-in!
 Per-fect, and right, and pure, and good, A cop-y, Lord, of Thine.
 Write Thy new name up-on my heart, Thy new, best name of Love. A-MEN.

GOD

1. GOD CREATOR

Genesis 1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

And the earth was waste and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.

And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

And God called the firmament Heaven.

And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

And God said, Let the earth put forth grass, herbs yielding seed, and fruit-trees bearing fruit after their kind, wherein is the seed thereof, upon the earth: and it was so.

And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years: and let them be for lights in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

And God made the two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night.

He made the stars also.

And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

And God said, Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

And God created the great sea-monsters, and every living creature that moveth, wherewith the waters swarmed, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind.

And God saw that it was good.

And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

And God said, Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, cattle, and creeping things, and beasts of the earth after their kind: and it was so.

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.

And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

And God blessed them: and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2. GOD RULER OF EARTH

Psalm 95

Oh come, let us sing unto Jehovah;
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For Jehovah is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, and he made it;
And his hands formed the dry land.

Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker:

For he is our God,

And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

3. GOD THE POWERFUL ONE

Isa. 40:12-18; Rom. 11:33-36

Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

Who hath directed the Spirit of Jehovah, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?

Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are accounted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing, and vanity.

To whom then will ye liken God?

Or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God!

How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!

For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

For of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things.

To him be the glory for ever. Amen.

4. THE GOD OF NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL LAW

Psalm 19

The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night showeth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language;
Their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heavens,
And his circuit unto the ends of it;
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever:

The ordinances of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

In keeping them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors?

Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;

Let them not have dominion over me:

Then shall I be upright,

And I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

Be acceptable in thy sight,

O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

5. GOD THE KING

Psalms 97

Jehovah reigneth; let the earth rejoice; Let the multitude of isles be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about him: Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

A fire goeth before him, And burneth up his adversaries round about.

His lightnings lightened the world: The earth saw, and trembled.

The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Jehovah, At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

The heavens declare his righteousness, And all the peoples have seen his glory.

Let all them be put to shame that serve graven images, That boast themselves of idols:

Worship him, all ye gods.

Zion heard and was glad, And the daughters of Judah rejoiced, Because of thy judgments, O Jehovah.

For thou, Jehovah, art most high above all the earth:

Thou art exalted far above all gods.

O ye that love Jehovah, hate evil:

He preserveth the souls of his saints; He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous, And gladness for the upright in heart.

Be glad in Jehovah, ye righteous; And give thanks to his holy memorial name.

6. GOD THE GLORIOUS ONE

Psalms 96

Oh sing unto Jehovah a new song:

Sing unto Jehovah, all the earth.

Sing unto Jehovah, bless his name; Show forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the nations, His marvellous works among all the peoples.

For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised:

He is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the peoples are idols; But Jehovah made the heavens.

Honor and majesty are before him: Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Ascribe unto Jehovah, ye kindreds of the peoples,

Ascribe unto Jehovah glory and strength.

Ascribe unto Jehovah the glory due unto his name:

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

Oh worship Jehovah in holy array:

Tremble before him, all the earth.

Say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth: The world also is established that it cannot be moved:

He will judge the peoples with equity.

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

Let the field exult, and all that is therein; Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy

Before Jehovah; for he cometh,

For he cometh to judge the earth:

He will judge the world with righteousness, And the peoples with his truth.

7. GOD THE HOLY AND RIGHTEOUS ONE

Psalms 24

The earth is Jehovah's, and the fulness thereof;

The world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of Jehovah?
And who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek after him,

That seek thy face, even Jacob. [Selah

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors;
And the King of glory will come in.

Who is the King of glory?

Jehovah strong and mighty,
Jehovah mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory?

Jehovah of hosts,
He is the King of glory. [Selah

8. GOD THE ETERNAL

Psalm 90

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place
In all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction,
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood;
they are as a sleep:
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;
In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed in thine anger,
And in thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath:

We bring our years to an end as a sigh.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten.

Or even by reason of strength fourscore years;

Yet is their pride but labor and sorrow;
For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger,
And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

So teach us to number our days,
That we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Return, O Jehovah; how long?
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy lovingkindness,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory upon their children.

And let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us;

And establish thou the work of our hands
upon us;

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

9. GOD THE UNIVERSAL ONE

Acts 14: 15-17; 17: 24-31

We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is:

Who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways.

And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.

The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

Neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things.

And he made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation;

That they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him,

Though he is not far from each one of us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being;

As certain even of your own poets have said,

For we are also his offspring.

Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man.

The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked;

But now he commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent;

Inasmuch as he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he hath ordained;

Whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

10. GOD THE OMNISCIENT

From Psalm 139

O Jehovah, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;

Thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,

And art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O Jehovah, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thy hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:
If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me,
And the light about me shall be night;
Even the darkness hideth not from thee,
But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

For thou didst form my inward parts:
Thou didst cover me in my mother's womb.

I will give thanks unto thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:

Wonderful are thy works;

And that my soul knoweth right well.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!

How great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:

When I awake, I am still with thee.

Search me, O God, and know my heart:

Try me, and know my thoughts;

And see if there be any wicked way in me,

And lead me in the way everlasting.

11. GOD THE PRESERVER

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains:
From whence shall my help come?

My help cometh from Jehovah,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Will neither slumber nor sleep.

Jehovah is thy keeper:

Jehovah is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

Jehovah will keep thee from all evil;
He will keep thy soul.

Jehovah will keep thy going out and thy coming in

From this time forth and for evermore.

12. GOD THE PROVIDER

Matt. 6: 25-34; 7: 7-11

Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on.

Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them.

Are not ye of much more value than they?

And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

And why are ye anxious concerning raiment?

Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself.

Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent?

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

13. GOD THE PROTECTOR

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of Jehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in whom I trust.

For he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover thee with his pinions,
And under his wings shalt thou take refuge:
His truth is a shield and a buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.

For thou, O Jehovah, art my refuge!
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

For he will give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his love upon me,
therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble:
I will deliver him, and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him,
And show him my salvation.

14. GOD OUR REFUGE

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,
And though the mountains be shaken into the heart of the seas;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,

Though the mountains tremble with the swelling thereof. [Selah]

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
God will help her, and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:

He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

Jehovah of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. [Selah

Come, behold the works of Jehovah,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear
in sunder;

He burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

Jehovah of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge. [Selah

15. GOD OUR SHEPHERD

Psalm 23

Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever.

16. GOD THE MERCIFUL

Psalm 103

Bless Jehovah, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;

Who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;

Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things,
So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

Jehovah executeth righteous acts,
And judgments for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses,

His doings unto the children of Israel.

Jehovah is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness.

He will not always chide;
Neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins,
Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is his lovingkindness toward them
that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children,
So Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame;
He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the loving kindness of Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,

And his righteousness unto children's children;

To such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his precepts to do them.

Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens;

And his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless Jehovah, ye his angels,
That are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,

Hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts,
Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his works,
In all places of his dominion:

Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

17. GOD'S HONOR AMONG THE NATIONS

Psalm 67

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us; [Selah
That thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy salvation among all nations.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God;

Let all the peoples praise thee.

Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;

For thou wilt judge the peoples with equity,
And govern the nations upon earth. [Selah

Let the peoples praise thee, O God;

Let all the peoples praise thee.

The earth hath yielded its increase:
God, even our own God, will bless us.

God will bless us;
And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

18. GOD THE POWERFUL

Job 12:7-24

But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee;
And the birds of the heavens, and they shall tell thee:

Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee;
And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

Who knoweth not in all these,
That the hand of Jehovah hath wrought this,
In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,
And the breath of all mankind?

Doth not the ear try words,
Even as the palate tasteth its food?

With aged men is wisdom,
And in length of days understanding.

With God is wisdom and might;
He hath counsel and understanding.

Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;

He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up;

Again, he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

With him is strength and wisdom;
The deceived and the deceiver are his.

He leadeth counsellors away stripped,
And judges maketh he fools.

He looseth the bond of kings,
And bindeth their loins with a girdle.

He leadeth priests away stripped,
And overthroweth the mighty.

He removeth the speech of the trusty,
And taketh away the understanding of the elders.

He poureth contempt upon princes,
And looseth the belt of the strong.

He uncovereth deep things out of darkness,
And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

He increaseth the nations, and he destroyeth them:

He enlargeth the nations, and he leadeth them captive.

He taketh away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth,

And caused them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

19. GOD IS LOVE

1 John 3:1-3; 4:7-19

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are.

For this cause the world knoweth us not,
because it knew him not.

Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be.

We know that, if he shall be manifested,
we shall be like him; for we shall see him even as he is.

And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth not God;
For God is love.

Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent his only begotten

Son into the world that we might live through him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us:

Hereby we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God.

And we know and have believed the love which God hath in us.

God is love;

And he hath abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.

Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, even so are we in this world.

There is no fear in love:

But perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

We love, because he first loved us.

JESUS CHRIST

20. THE WORD AT CREATION

John 1: 1-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God,

And the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made through him; and without him was not anything made that hath been made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness apprehended it not.

There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John.

The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him.

He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light.

There was the true light, even the light which lighteth every man, coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not.

He came unto his own, and they that were his own received him not.

But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on his name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.

John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was before me.

For of his fulness we all received, and grace for grace.

For the law was given through Moses; Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

No man hath seen God at any time;

The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

21. GOD WITH MEN

John 3: 16-18; 10: 30-38; Matt. 11: 27;
John 14: 6-11, 19, 20

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.

He that believeth on him is not judged:

He that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God.

I and the Father are one.

The Jews took up stones again to stone him.

Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.

All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willet to reveal him.

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me.

If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Show us the Father?

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father abiding in me doeth his works.

Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, ye shall live also.

In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

22. HIS BIRTH ON EARTH

Luke 2: 4-20

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him.

And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger.

And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child.

And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

23. PRINCE OF PEACE

Isa. 9: 1-7

But there shall be no gloom to her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time hath he made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased their joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as in the day of Midian.

For all the armor of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, shall be for burning, for fuel of fire.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given;

And the government shall be upon his shoulder:

And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever.

The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will perform this.

24. THE MAGNIFICAT

Luke 1: 46-55

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath looked upon the low estate of his handmaid:

For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things;

And holy is his name.

And his mercy is unto generations and generations

Of them that fear him.

He hath showed strength with his arm;

He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.

He hath put down princes from their thrones,

And hath exalted them of low degree.

The hungry he hath filled with good things;

And the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath given help to Israel his servant,
That he might remember mercy

(As he spake unto our fathers)

Toward Abraham and his seed for ever.

25. THE BREAD FROM HEAVEN

John 6: 27-40

Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed.

They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.

Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. For the bread of God is that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not.

All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day.

For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

26. THE GOOD SHEPHERD

John 10: 7-18

Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture.

The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy:

I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep.

He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and they shall become one flock, one shepherd.

Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.

No one taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again.

This commandment received I from my Father.

27. THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

Matt. 4: 23, 24; 8: 2, 3, 16, 17; 15: 30, 31; 20: 30-34; Luke 7: 12-15; 19: 41, 42; Matt. 23: 37; Acts 10: 38; Matt. 11: 28-30.

And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

And the report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them.

And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed.

And when even was come, they brought unto him many possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet;

And he healed them:

Insomuch that the multitude wondered,

when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing:

And they glorified the God of Israel.

And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David.

And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace:

But they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David.

And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you?

They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

And he came nigh and touched the bier:

And the bearers stood still.

And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak.

And he gave him to his mother.

And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and wept over it,

Saying, If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Jesus of Nazareth, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

28. HIS SUFFERING

Isaiah 53

Who hath believed our message? and to whom hath the arm of Jehovah been revealed?

For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground:

He hath no form nor comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief:

And as one from whom men hide their face he was despised; and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities;

The chastisement of our peace was upon him;

And with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way;

And Jehovah hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he opened not his mouth;

As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.

By oppression and judgment he was taken away;

And as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?

And they made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased Jehovah to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of Jehovah shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied:

By the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many;

And he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors:

Yet he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

29. THE RISEN LORD

Luke 24: 1-7; John 20: 11-18; Acts 2: 32-36

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.

And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.

And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel:

And as they were affrighted and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

He is not here, but is risen:

Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping:

So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb;

And she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou?

She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou?

She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

Jesus saith unto her, Mary.

She turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher.

Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.

Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that he had said these things unto her.

This Jesus did God raise up, whereof we all are witnesses.

Being therefore by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath poured forth tnis, which ye see and hear.

For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,
The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.

30. OUR HIGH PRIEST

Heb. 2: 17—3: 2; 4: 14—5: 5, 7-10; 7: 22-28

Wherefore it behooved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even Jesus;

Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house.

Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

Who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is com-passed with infirmity; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

And no man taketh the honor unto himself, but when he is called of God, even as was Aaron.

So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered;

And having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the author of eternal salvation;

Named of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

By so much also hath Jesus become the surety of a better covenant.

And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing:

But he, because he abideth for ever, hath his priesthood unchangeable.

Wherefore also he is able to save to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

Who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people:

For this he did once for all, when he offered up himself.

For the law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity;

But the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

31. THE OFFERING OF OUR HIGH PRIEST

Heb. 8: 1-3; 9: 11-14, 24, 25; 10: 14, 19-25

Now in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man.

For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer.

But Christ having come a high priest of the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption.

For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh:

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us:

Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place year by year with blood not his own:

For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a great priest over the house of God;

Let us draw near with a true heart in fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience:

And having our body washed with pure water, let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not;

For he is faithful that promised:

And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works;

Not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is,

But exhorting one another;

And so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.

32. HIS HUMILIATION AND GLORY

2 Cor. 8:9; Phil. 2:5-11; 1 Cor. 15:20-28

Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich.

Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Who, existing in the form of God, counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men;

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross.

Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name;

That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's, at his coming.

Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished all rule and all authority and power.

For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy that shall be abolished is death.

For, He put all things in subjection under his feet.

But when he saith, All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him.

And when all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all.

33. HIS REIGN

Psalm 2

Why do the nations rage,
And the peoples meditate a vain thing?
The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against Jehovah, and against his anointed, saying,

Let us break their bonds asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.

He that sitteth in the heavens will laugh:
The Lord will have them in derision.

Then will he speak unto them in his wrath,
And vex them in his sore displeasure:

Yet I have set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will tell of the decree:
Jehovah said unto me, Thou art my son;
This day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance,

And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Now therefore be wise, O ye kings:
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Serve Jehovah with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way,
For his wrath will soon be kindled.

Blessed are all they that take refuge in him.

THE BIBLE

34. THE PERFECTION OF GOD'S LAW

Psa. 19: 7-14

The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever:

The ordinances of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
In keeping them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors?

Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;

Let them not have dominion over me:

Then shall I be upright,
And I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

Be acceptable in thy sight,
O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

Having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard,

Lest haply we drift away from them.

For if the word spoken through angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation?

Which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard;

God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will.

But we behold him who hath been made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for every man.

For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one:

For which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren.

35. THE OLD AND THE NEW

Heb. 1: 1-4; 2: 1-4, 9-11

God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in his Son,

Whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds;

Who being the effulgence of his glory, and the very image of his substance, and

36. TESTIMONY TO POWER OF GOD'S WORD

Selections from Psalm 119

Blessed are they that are perfect in the way,

Who walk in the law of Jehovah.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
That seek him with the whole heart.

Yea, they do no unrighteousness;
They walk in his ways.

Thou hast commanded us thy precepts,
That we should observe them diligently.

Oh that my ways were established
To observe thy statutes!

Then shall I not be put to shame,
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.

Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way?

By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee:
Oh let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I laid up in my heart,
That I might not sin against thee.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,
As much as in all riches.

I will meditate on thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes:

I will not forget thy word.

Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold
Wondrous things out of thy law.

My soul cleaveth unto the dust:
Quicken thou me according to thy word.

Teach me, O Jehovah, the way of thy statutes;

And I shall keep it unto the end.

Let thy lovingkindness also come unto me, O Jehovah,
Even thy salvation, according to thy word.

So shall I have an answer for him that reproacheth me;
For I trust in thy word.

And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth;

For I have hoped in thine ordinances.

So shall I observe thy law continually
For ever and ever.

And I shall walk at liberty;
For I have sought thy precepts.

It is good for me that I have been afflicted;
That I may learn thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is better unto me
Than thousands of gold and silver.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me:

Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

For ever, O Jehovah,
Thy word is settled in heaven.

Thy faithfulness is unto all generations:
Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

They abide this day according to thine ordinances;

For all things are thy servants.

Oh how love I thy law!

It is my meditation all the day.

Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies;

For they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers;

For thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the aged,
Because I have kept thy precepts.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet
And light unto my path.

37. THE BLESSINGS OF THE BIBLE STUDENT

Psalm 1

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers:

But his delight is in the law of Jehovah;
And on his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,

Whose leaf also doth not wither;
And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The wicked are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For Jehovah knoweth the way of the righteous;

But the way of the wicked shall perish.

THE GOSPEL

38. THE NEW UNIVERSAL ZION

Isa. 2: 2-4

And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills;

And all nations shall flow unto it.

And many peoples shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths:

For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.

And he will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples;

And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks;

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

Neither shall they learn war any more.

39. THE UNIVERSAL INVITATION

Isaiah 55

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat;

Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not?

Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me;

Hear, and your soul shall live:

And I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.

Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of Jehovah thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel;

For he hath glorified thee.

Seek ye Jehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near:

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts;

And let him return unto Jehovah, and he will have mercy upon him;

And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith Jehovah.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth:

It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace:

The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree:

And it shall be to Jehovah for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

40. THE PEACE-BRINGING POWER OF THE GOSPEL

Isa. 11: 1-10

And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit.

And the Spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and of might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah.

And his delight shall be in the fear of Jehovah;

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears;

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist, and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.

And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together;

And a little child shall lead them.

And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the root of Jesse, that standeth for an ensign of the peoples, unto him shall the nations seek;

And his resting-place shall be glorious.

41. THE GREAT MESSAGE OF COMFORT

Isa. 40: 1-11

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem;

And cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she hath received of Jehovah's hand double for all her sins.

The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of Jehovah; make level in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low;

And the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain:

And the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together;

For the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it.

The voice of one saying, Cry.

And one said, What shall I cry?

All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, because the breath of Jehovah bloweth upon it; surely the people is grass.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth;

But the word of our God shall stand for ever.

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up on a high mountain;

O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength;

Lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God!

Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him:

Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young.

42. FAITH IN JESUS THE CRITERION

John 12: 44-50; 1 John 2: 22, 23; John 3: 16-18

And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

And he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me.

I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness.

And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him:

The word that I spake, the same shall judge him in the last day.

For I spake not from myself; but the Father that sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

And I know that his commandment is life eternal; the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ?

This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son.

Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father;

He that confesseth the Son hath the Father also.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.

He that believeth on him is not judged:

He that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God.

43. TERMS OF SALVATION—FAITH

Heb. 11: 1, 6; Rom. 10: 13-15; Mark 16: 15, 16; Acts 8: 12; 18: 8; 16: 30-34; 17: 10-12; John 3: 16-18; 1 John 5: 4.

Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, a conviction of things not seen.

And without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him;

For he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him.

For, Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent?

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned.

But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.

And they spake the word of the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house.

And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately.

And he brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, having believed in God.

And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea:

Who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so.

Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honorable estate, and of men, not a few.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world;

But that the world should be saved through him.

He that believeth on him is not judged:

He that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God.

For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world:

And this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith.

44. TERMS OF SALVATION—REPENTANCE

Matt. 11: 20; Luke 13: 3; 24: 47; Acts 2: 37, 38; Luke 5: 32; Acts 17: 30; Rom. 2: 3, 4; Acts 8: 22; Luke 11: 32; 2 Pet. 3: 9; Luke 15: 7.

Then began he to upbraid the cities where in most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

Except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish.

Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked;

But now he commanded men they should all everywhere repent.

And reckonest thou this, O man, who judgest them that practice such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee.

The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it;

For they repented at the preaching of Jonah;

And behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to youward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

There shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

45. TERMS OF SALVATION—CONFESSION

1 John 4: 15; Rom. 10: 8-10; Matt. 10: 32, 33; Rev. 3: 5; John 12: 42; Rom. 14: 11; Phil. 2: 9-11.

Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God.

The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach:

Because if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved:

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

He that overcometh shall thus be arrayed in white garments; and I will in no wise blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, And every tongue shall confess to God.

Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name;

That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth,

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

46. TERMS OF SALVATION—BAPTISM

Matt. 28: 18-20; Mark 16: 16; Acts 2: 38-41; 10: 47, 48; 8: 35-39; Rom. 6: 3-5; Col. 2: 12; Acts 22: 16.

And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth.

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you:

And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved;

But he that disbelieveth shall be condemned.

And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls.

Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached unto him Jesus.

And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

And he commanded the chariot to stand still:

And they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip;

And the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing.

Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death,

We shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection.

Having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name.

47. THE SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE OF BAPTISM

Rom. 6: 1-14

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein?

Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death,

We shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection;

Knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; for he that hath died is justified from sin.

But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him;

Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over him.

For the death that he died, he died unto sin once: but the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof:

Neither present your members unto sin as instruments of unrighteousness,

But present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

For sin shall not have dominion over you;

For ye are not under law, but under grace.

48. THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL—I.

Rom. 3: 19-26; 5: 1-11, 19-21

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God:

Because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for through the law cometh the knowledge of sin.

But now apart from the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ unto all them that believe; for there is no distinction;

For all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

Whom God set forth to be a propitiation, through faith, in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearance of God;

For the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him that hath faith in Jesus.

Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

Through whom also we have had our access by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

And not only so, but we also rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that our tribulation worketh steadfastness; and steadfastness, approvedness; and approvedness, hope:

And hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us.

For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from the wrath of God through him.

For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved by his life;

And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous.

And the law came in, besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly:

That, as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

49. THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL—II.

Rom. 6: 12-14; 7: 5, 6; 8: 1-5, 31, 35-39

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: neither present your members unto sin as instruments of unrighteousness;

But present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were held;

So that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death.

For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth,

Nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

THE CHRISTIAN

50. THE DIGNITY GIVEN TO MAN

Psalm 8

O Jehovah, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth,
Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens!

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength,
Because of thine adversaries,

That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than God,

And crownest him with glory and honor.

Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field,

The birds of the heavens, and the fish
of the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Jehovah, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

51. THE CITIZEN OF ZION

Psalm 15

Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh
righteousness,
And speaketh truth in his heart;

He that slandereth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his friend,
Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor;

In whose eyes a reprobate is despised,
But who honoreth them that fear Jehovah;

He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not;

He that putteth not out his money to interest,

Nor taketh reward against the innocent.

He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

52. THE SUPREME CHRISTIAN FACULTY

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

Love suffereth long, and is kind;

Love envieth not;

Love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.

Doth not behave itself unseemly,

Seeketh not its own,

Is not provoked,

Taketh not account of evil;

Rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth:

But whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

But when that which is perfect is come,
that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child,
I felt as a child, I thought as a child:

Now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things.

For now we see in a mirror, darkly;

But then face to face:

Now I know in part;

But then shall I know fully even as also
I was fully known.

But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three;

And the greatest of these is love.

53. CHRISTIAN CONSECRATION

Romans 12

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies
a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service.

And be not fashioned according to this world:

But be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think;

But so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith.

For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another.

And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, to his teaching; or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting:

He that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be without hypocrisy.

Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

In love of the brethren be tenderly af-fectioned one to another; in honor preferring one another;

In diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit;
serving the Lord;

Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing stedfastly in prayer;

Communicating to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another.

Set not your mind on high things, but condescend to things that are lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Render to no man evil for evil.

Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men.

Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto the wrath of God: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord.

But if thine enemy hunger, feed him;
if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

54. CHRISTIAN CONDUCT

1 Thess. 4: 9-12; 5: 7-23

But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you:
for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another; for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia.

But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more and more; and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your hands, even as we charged you;

That ye may walk becomingly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing.

They that sleep sleep in the night; and they that are drunken are drunken in the night.

But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

Wherefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves.

And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be longsuffering toward all.

See that none render unto any one evil for evil; but always follow after that which is good, one toward another, and toward all.

Rejoice always;

Pray without ceasing;

In everything give thanks:

For this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to youward.

Quench not the Spirit;

Despise not prophesyings;

Prove all things; hold fast that which is good;

Abstain from every form of evil.

And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

55. CHRISTIAN GROWTH

Eph. 3: 14-19; 4: 11-16, 25—5: 2

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;

That Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,

And to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

For the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering unto the building up of the body of Christ:

Till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

That we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;

But speaking truth in love, may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, even Christ;

From whom all the body fitly framed and knit together through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.

Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil.

Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need.

Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear.

And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice:

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.

Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved children;

And walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a sweet smell.

56. CHRISTIAN ARMOR

Eph. 6: 10-18

Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might.

Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

Wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breast-plate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

With all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.

57. CHRISTIAN CONDUCT TOWARD NEIGHBORS

Matt. 5: 38-48; 7: 1, 2

Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

But I say unto you, Resist not him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

And whosoever shall compel thee to go one mile, go with him two.

Give to him that asketh thee,

And from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy:

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you;

that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven:

For he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.

For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same?

Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you.

58. SOCIAL JUSTICE

Mic. 6: 6-15; Amos 5: 7-24

Wherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God?

Shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old?

Will Jehovah be pleased with a thousand rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

He hath showed thee, O man, what is good;

And what doth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abominable?

Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights?

For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; I have made thee desolate because of thy sins.

Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt not save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword.

Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not amoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt not drink the wine.

Ye who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth, seek him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth (Jehovah is his name).

They hate him that reproveth in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

Forasmuch therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them;

Ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine thereof. Ye that afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right.

Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, as ye say.

Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate:

It may be that Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

Yea, though ye offer me your burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

59. SOCIAL RIGHTEOUSNESS

Psalm 101; Prov. 14: 34

I will sing of lovingkindness and justice:

Unto thee, O Jehovah, will I sing praises.

I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way:

Oh when wilt thou come unto me?

I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

I will set no base thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; It shall not cleave unto me.

A perverse heart shall depart from me: I will know no evil thing.

Whoso privily slandereth his neighbor, him will I destroy:

Him that hath a high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.

Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:

He that walketh in a perfect way, he shall minister unto me.

He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house:

He that speaketh falsehood shall not be established before mine eyes.

Morning by morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land;

To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of Jehovah.

Righteousness exalteth a nation; But sin is a reproach to any people.

60. LIVING TOGETHER AT PEACE

1 Pet. 2: 11-19, 21-23; 3: 1-4, 7-9

Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

Having your behavior seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do well.

For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

As free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

Honor all men.

Love the brotherhood.

Fear God.

Honor the king.

Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

For this is acceptable, if for conscience toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully.

For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps:

Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the behavior of their wives; beholding your chaste behavior coupled with fear.

Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel;

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

Finally, be ye all likeminded, compassionate, loving as brethren, tenderhearted, humbleminded:

Not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing: for hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

61. COURAGE IN PERSECUTION

A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord.

It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord.

If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more them of his household!

Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim upon the housetops.

And be not afraid of them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul:

But rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father:

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Think not that I came to send peace on the earth:

I came not to send peace, but a sword.

For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law:

And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me.

He that findeth his life shall lose it;

And he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

62. CHRISTIAN GRACES

2 Pet. 1: 2-11; Gal. 6: 1-5, 10

Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us by his own glory and virtue;

Whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises;

That through these ye may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.

Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue;

And in your virtue knowledge;
 And in your knowledge self-control;
 And in your self-control patience;
 And in your patience godliness;
 And in your godliness brotherly kindness;
 And in your brotherly kindness love.

For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For he that lacketh these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.

Wherefore brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never stumble;

For thus shall be richly supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

For if a man thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

But let each man prove his own work, and then shall he have his glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of his neighbor.

For each man shall bear his own burden.

So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of the faith.

63. OBEDIENCE THE PROOF OF LOVE

Matt. 7: 15-23; John 14: 21, 23, 24; 1 John 2: 3-6; 3: 7-10, 18; 5: 1, 2

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.

By their fruits ye shall know them.

Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many mighty works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him.

If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

He that loveth me not, keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's, who sent me.

And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been perfected.

Hereby we know that we are in him: he that saith he abideth in him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous:

He that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning.

To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God.

In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and truth.

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

Hereby we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments.

64. TEMPERANCE

Prov. 20: 1; 23: 19, 20, 29-35; Matt. 5: 29, 30; Gal. 5: 13, 19-21; 1 John 2: 15-17; Matt. 7: 13, 14.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler; And whosoever erreth thereby is not wise.

Hear thou, my son, and be wise, And guide thy heart in the way.

Be not among winebibbers, Among gluttonous eaters of flesh:

Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions?

Who hath complaining? who hath wounds without cause?

Who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine; They that go to seek out mixed wine.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, When it sparkleth in the cup, When it goeth down smoothly:

At the last it biteth like a serpent, And stingeth like an adder.

Thine eyes shall behold strange things, And thy heart shall utter perverse things.

Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea,

Or as he that lieth upon the top of the mast.

They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not hurt;

They have beaten me, and I felt it not:

When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee:

For it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast into hell.

And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee:

For it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into hell.

For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh,

But through love be servants one to another.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, parties, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like;

Of which I forewarn you even as I did forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the vainglory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof:

But he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby.

For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few are they that find it.

65. CONFIDENCE

Matt. 6: 19-34

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also.

The lamp of the body is the eye:

If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness.

If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other;

or else he will hold to one, and despise the other.

Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on.

Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they?

And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself.

Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

THE CHURCH

66. ITS ORDINANCE—THE LORD'S TABLE

1 Cor. 11: 23-33

For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread;

And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of me.

In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

For as oft as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come.

Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.

For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he discern not the body.

For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.

But if we discerned ourselves, we should not be judged.

But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another.

67. ITS FOUNDER AND GUIDE—THE HOLY SPIRIT

John 14: 16-18, 25-27; 15: 26, 27; 16: 7-15; Acts 1: 4, 8

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you desolate: I come unto you.

These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you.

But the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.

But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me:

And ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you.

And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

Of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged.

I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come.

He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you.

All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you.

And, being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me:

Ye shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit is come upon you:

And ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

68. THE SPIRIT'S LEADERSHIP AND WORK

Acts 2: 1-4, 38, 39; Gal. 5: 22, 23

And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins;

And ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, self-control.

69. THE CHURCH'S UNITY IN CHRIST

John 17: 20, 21; 10: 16; Eph. 4: 1-6; 1 Cor. 12: 12, 13; 3: 3-9, 16-23.

Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word;

That they may all be one;

Even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us;

That the world may believe that thou didst send me.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice;

And they shall become one flock, one shepherd.

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called,

With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

Giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling;

One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.

For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk after the manner of men?

For when one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not men?

What then is Apollos? and what is Paul?

Ministers through whom ye believed; and each as the Lord gave to him.

I planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.

For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, God's building.

According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Know ye not that ye are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

If any man destroyeth the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, and such are ye.

Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

Wherefore let no one glory in men.

For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come;

All are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

70. ITS OFFICERS—ELDERS

Tit. 1: 5-9; 1 Tim. 3: 4-7; 1 Pet. 5: 1-6.

For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and appoint elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of riot or unruly.

For the bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-willed, not soon angry, no brawler, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled;

Holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

(But if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

Not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without;

Lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Tend the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not of constraint, but willingly, according to the will of God;

Nor yet for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

Neither as lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock.

And when the chief Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Likewise, ye younger, be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another: for God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

71. ITS OFFICERS—DEACONS

Acts 6: 1-6; 1 Tim. 3: 8-10, 12, 13

Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not fit that we should forsake the word of God, and serve tables.

Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of god report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

But we will continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word.

And the saying pleased the whole multitude;

And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit,

And Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus a proselyte of Antioch;

Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands upon them.

Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless.

Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

72. ITS POWER

John 15: 1-17

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.

Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples.

Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you.

No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you.

Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide:

That whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

These things I command you, that ye may love one another.

73. SIMPLICITY OF CHRISTIAN WORSHIP

Matt. 6:1-18; John 4:19-24

Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven.

When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men.

Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward.

But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret:

And thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men.

Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward.

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast.

Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward.

But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father who is in secret:

And thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father.

Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth:

For such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

PRAISE AND PRAYER

74. PRAISE FOR GOD'S CARE

Psalm 34

I will bless Jehovah at all times:

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in Jehovah:

The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.

Oh magnify Jehovah with me,
And let us exalt his name together.

I sought Jehovah, and he answered me,
And delivered me from all my fears.

They looked unto him, and were radiant;
And their faces shall never be confounded.

This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of Jehovah encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.

Oh taste and see that Jehovah is good:
Blessed is the man that taketh refuge in him.

Oh fear Jehovah, ye his saints;
For there is no want to them that fear him.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger;
But they that seek Jehovah shall not want any good thing.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.

What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good?

Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.

Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.

The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from
the earth.

The righteous cried, and Jehovah heard,
And delivered them out of all their troubles.

Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart,

And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous;
But Jehovah delivereth him out of them all.

He keepeth all his bones:
Not one of them is broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked;
And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.

Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants;
And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

75. PRAISE FOR DELIVERANCE—I.

Psalm 40

I waited patiently for Jehovah;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth,
even praise unto our God:
Many shall see it, and fear,
And shall trust in Jehovah.

Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Many, O Jehovah my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done,
And thy thoughts which are to us-ward:
They cannot be set in order unto thee;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

76. PRAISE FOR DELIVERANCE—II.

Psalm 124

If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,
Let Israel now say,

If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side,
When men rose up against us;

Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us:

Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
The stream had gone over our soul;

Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

Blessed be Jehovah,
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers:

The snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the name of Jehovah,
Who made heaven and earth.

77. PRAISE FOR GOD'S GOODNESS

Psalm 100

Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all ye lands.

Serve Jehovah with gladness:
Come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that Jehovah, he is God:

It is he that hath made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:

Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

For Jehovah is good; his lovingkindness endureth for ever,

And his faithfulness unto all generations.

78. PRAISE OF GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

Psalm 33

Rejoice in Jehovah, O ye righteous:
Praise is comely for the upright.

Give thanks unto Jehovah with the harp:
Sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.

Sing unto him a new song;
Play skilfully with a loud noise.

For the word of Jehovah is right;
And all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loveth righteousness and justice:

The earth is full of the lovingkindness of Jehovah.

By the word of Jehovah were the heavens made,

And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together
as a heap:

He layeth up the deeps in storehouses.

Let all the earth fear Jehovah:

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done;

He commanded, and it stood fast.

Jehovah bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought;

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

The counsel of Jehovah standeth fast for ever,

The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah,

The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Jehovah looketh from heaven;
He beholdeth all the sons of men;

From the place of his habitation he looketh forth

Upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

He that fashioneth the hearts of them all,
That considereth all their works.

There is no king saved by the multitude of a host:

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

A horse is a vain thing for safety;
Neither doth he deliver any by his great power.

Behold, the eye of Jehovah is upon them
that fear him,

Upon them that hope in his lovingkindness;

To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul hath waited for Jehovah:

He is our help and our shield.

For our heart shall rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.

Let thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, be upon us,

According as we have hoped in thee.

79. JOY IN WORSHIP

Psalm 84

How amiable are thy tabernacles,
O Jehovah of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah;

My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,

Even thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts,
My King, and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house;
They will be still praising thee. [Selah

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee;

In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs;

Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength;
Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob. [Selah

Behold, O God our shield,
And look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield:

Jehovah will give grace and glory;
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Jehovah of hosts,
Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

80. PRAYER FOR MERCY AND CLEANSING

Psalm 51

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions;
And my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in thy sight;

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts;

And in the hidden part thou wilt make me to know wisdom.

Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with a willing spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God,
thou God of my salvation;

And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips;
And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it:

Thou hast no pleasure in burnt-offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion:
Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then wilt thou delight in the sacrifices of
righteousness,

In burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering:
Then will they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

81. PRAYER IN TIME OF TROUBLE

Psalm 42

As the hart panteth after the water
brooks,

So panteth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living
God:

When shall I come and appear before God?

My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say unto me, Where
is thy God?

These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,

How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,

With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise
him
For the help of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me:
Therefore do I remember thee from the land of the Jordan,
And the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.

Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls:
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Yet Jehovah will command his lovingkindness in the daytime;

And in the night his song shall be with me,
Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

I will say unto God my rock,
Why hast thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me,
While they continually say unto me, Where
is thy God?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise
him,
Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

82. TRUST IN A TIME OF TROUBLE

Psalm 27

Jehovah is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?

Jehovah is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?

When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh,
Even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;

Though war should rise against me,
Even then will I be confident.

One thing have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after:
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah
all the days of my life.

To behold the beauty of Jehovah,
And to inquire in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion:

In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me;
He will lift me up upon a rock.

And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;
And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;

I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto Jehovah.

Hear, O Jehovah, when I cry with my voice:

Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart saith unto thee,
Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek.

Hide not thy face from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:

Thou hast been my help;
Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O
God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake
me,

Then Jehovah will take me up.
Teach me thy way, O Jehovah;
And lead me in a plain path,
Because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries:

For false witnesses are risen up against
me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah

In the land of the living.

Wait for Jehovah:

Be strong, and let thy heart take courage;

Yea, wait thou for Jehovah.

83. COUNSEL OF CONFIDENCE

Ps. 37: 1-11, 23-25, 37

Fret not thyself because of evil-doers,
Neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.

Trust in Jehovah, and do good;
Dwell in the land, and feed on his faithfulness.

Delight thyself also in Jehovah;
And he will give thee the desires of thy heart.

Commit thy way unto Jehovah;
Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass.

And he will make thy righteousness to go forth as the light,
And thy justice as the noonday.

Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for
him:

Fret not thyself because of him who pros-
pereth in his way,
Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:
Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.

For evil-doers shall be cut off;
But those that wait for Jehovah, they shall inherit the land.

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be:

Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not be.

But the meek shall inherit the land,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

A man's goings are established of Jehovah;

And he delighteth in his way.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;

For Jehovah upholdeth him with his hand.

I have been young, and now am old;
Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his seed begging bread.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright;

For there is a happy end to the man of peace.

84. TRUST IN GOD'S FORGIVENESS

Psalm 130

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee,
O Jehovah.

Lord, hear my voice:

Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.

If thou, Jehovah, shouldest mark iniquities,

O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.

I wait for Jehovah, my soul doth wait,
And in his word do I hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord
More than watchmen wait for the morning;

Yea, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

O Israel, hope in Jehovah;
For with Jehovah there is lovingkindness,
And with him is plenteous redemption.

And he will redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

DEATH AND HEAVEN

85. THE ASSURANCE OF IMMORTALITY

Job 19: 25-27; John 11: 25, 26; 6: 51, 63; 14: 1-6; Rom. 14: 8, 9; 1 Cor. 3: 21-23; 15: 25, 26, 54, 55.

But as for me, I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And at last he will stand up upon the earth:

And after my skin, even this body, is destroyed,
Then without my flesh shall I see God;

Whom I, even I, shall see, on my side.
And mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die.

I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.

It is the spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life.

Let not your heart be troubled: believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go, ye know the way.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me.

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come;

All are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy that shall be abolished is death.

But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?

86. JESUS AT A TOMB

John 11: 11-15, 20-27, 33-36, 41, 43, 44

After this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awaken him out of sleep.

The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will recover.

Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep.

Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house.

Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee.

Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this?

She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world.

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping that came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him?

They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

Jesus wept.

The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him!

So they took away the stone.

And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me.

And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin.

Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

87. VICTORY OVER DEATH

1 Cor. 15: 13-23, 35-44, 49-55

But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, your faith also is vain.

Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised.

For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised:

And if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

Then they also that are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's, at his coming.

But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come?

Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is not quickened except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind;

But God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.

All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes.

There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body.

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I tell you a mystery: we all shall not sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump:

For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?

88. THE HEAVENLY CHARACTER

Matt. 25: 31-46

But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory:

And before him shall be gathered all the nations:

And he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats;

And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

For I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink?

And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels:

For I was hungry, and ye did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink;

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me.

And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

89. THE REWARD OF TRIBULATION

Rev. 7: 9-17

After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands;

And they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.

And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

Saying,

Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These that are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and whence came they?

And I say unto him, My lord, thou knowest.

And he said unto me, These are they that come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple:

And he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat:

For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life:

And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

90. THE NEW JERUSALEM

Rev. 21: 1-8, 10, 11, 18, 19, 22-27

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more.

And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God:

And he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away.

And he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, Write: for these words are faithful and true.

And he said unto me, They are come to pass. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

He that overcometh shall inherit these things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

Having the glory of God:

Her light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal:

And the building of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto pure glass.

The foundations of the wall of the city were builded with all manner of precious stones.

And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof.

And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the lamp thereof is the Lamb.

And the nations shall walk amidst the light thereof: and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.

And the gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there shall be no night there): and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it:

And there shall in no wise enter into it anything unclean, or he that maketh an abomination and a lie: but only they that are written in the Lamb's book of life.

91. THE HEAVENLY HOME

Rev. 22: 1-7, 11-14

And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the midst of the street thereof.

And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no curse any more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his servants shall serve him;

And they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads.

And there shall be night no more; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun; for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass.

And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.

He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness still: and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness still: and he that is holy, let him be made holy still.

Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to render to each man according as his work is.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have the right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.

MISCELLANEOUS

92. THE MISSIONARY CALL

Isa. 6: 1-8; Matt. 9: 36-38; John 17: 6, 9, 14-19; Rom. 10: 13-15; Matt. 28: 19, 20

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.

Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of hosts.

Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin forgiven.

And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?

Then I said, Here am I; send me.

But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd.

Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest.

I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word.

I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine:

I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

I pray that thou shouldest take them from the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil one.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth.

As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?

And how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard?

And how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent?

Even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings of good things!

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you;

And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

93. THE GOOD WOMAN

Prov. 31: 10-15, 19-23, 25-31

A worthy woman who can find?

For her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband trusteth in her, And he shall have no lack of gain.

She doeth him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeketh wool and flax,
And worketh willingly with her hands.

She is like the merchant-ships;
She bringeth her bread from afar.

She riseth also while it is yet night,
And giveth food to her household,
And their task to her maidens.

She layeth her hands to the distaff,
And her hands hold the spindle.

She stretcheth out her hand to the poor;
Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
For all her household are clothed with scarlet.

She maketh for herself carpets of tapestry;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sitteth among the elders of the land.

Strength and dignity are her clothing;
And she laugheth at the time to come.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
And the law of kindness is on her tongue.

She looketh well to the ways of her household,
And eateth not the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up, and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying:

Many daughters have done worthily,
But thou excellest them all.

Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
But a woman that feareth Jehovah, she shall be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands;
And let her works praise her in the gates.

94. INDUSTRY

Prov. 6: 6-9; 24: 30-34; 2 Thess. 3: 10-15

Go to the ant, thou sluggard;

Consider her ways, and be wise:

Which having no chief,
Overseer, or ruler,
Provideth her bread in the summer,
And gathereth her food in the harvest.

How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard?
When wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

I went by the field of the sluggard,
And by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

And lo, it was all grown over with thorns,
The face thereof was covered with nettles,

And the stone wall thereof was broken down.

Then I beheld, and considered well;

I saw, and received instruction:

Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep;

So shall thy poverty come as a robber,
And thy want as an armed man.

If any will not work, neither let them eat.

For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies.

Now them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing.

And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed.

And yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

95. COUNSELS OF WISDOM—I.

Selections from Proverbs

The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge;
But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father,
And forsake not the law of thy mother:

For they shall be a chaplet of grace unto thy head,
And chains about thy neck.

Let not kindness and truth forsake thee:

Bind them about thy neck;
Write them upon the tablet of thy heart:
So shalt thou find favor and good understanding

In the sight of God and man.

Trust in Jehovah with all thy heart,
And lean not upon thine own understanding;

In all thy ways acknowledge him,
And he will direct thy paths.

Honor Jehovah with thy substance,
And with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

So shall thy barns be filled with plenty,
And thy vats shall overflow with new wine.

My son, despise not the chastening of Jehovah;
Neither be weary of his reproof:

For whom Jehovah loveth he reproveth,
Even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Enter not into the path of the wicked,
And walk not in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, pass not by it;
Turn from it, and pass on.

A false balance is an abomination to Jehovah;
But a just weight is his delight.

When pride cometh, then cometh shame;
But with the lowly is wisdom.

The integrity of the upright shall guide them;

But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.

Riches profit not in the day of wrath;
But righteousness delivereth from death.
The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way;

But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

The way of a fool is right in his own eyes;
But he that is wise hearkeneth unto counsel.

A fool's vexation is presently known;
But a prudent man concealeth shame.

96. COUNSELS OF WISDOM—II.

Selections from Proverbs

Better is little, with the fear of Jehovah,
Than great treasure and trouble therewith.
Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
Than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.
He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty;

And he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city.

Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker;

And he that is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.

He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the righteous,
Both of them alike are an abomination to Jehovah.

A friend loveth at all times;
And a brother is born for adversity.

The discretion of a man maketh him slow to anger;

And it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming;
But who is able to stand before jealousy?

Better is open rebuke
Than love that is hidden.

Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
But the kisses of an enemy are profuse.

Boast not thyself of to-morrow;
For thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth;

A stranger, and not thine own lips.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,
And loving favor rather than silver and gold.

The rich and the poor meet together:
Jehovah is the maker of them all.

A prudent man seeth the evil, and hideth himself;

But the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
The reward of humility and the fear of Jehovah

Is riches, and honor, and life.

Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse:

He that keepeth his soul shall be far from them.

Train up a child in the way he should go,
And even when he is old he will not depart from it.

97. BEATITUDES

Matt. 5: 3-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

98. THE LORD'S PRAYER

Matt. 6: 9-13

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one; *for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen.

*This ending is omitted from the American Revised text because it appears in only a few of the ancient manuscripts.

99. THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Ex. 20: 2-17

I am Jehovah thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

1. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

2. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them; for I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate me, and showing lovingkindness unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

3. Thou shalt not take the name of Jehovah thy God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

4. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

5. Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

6. Thou shalt not kill.

7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

8. Thou shalt not steal.

9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

100. BENEDICTIONS

Be acceptable in thy sight,

O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

—Ps. 19: 14.

4. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.—1 Thess. 5: 28.

6. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.—Rom. 15: 33.

Amen.—Jude 24, 25.

11. Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do his will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.—Heb. 13: 20, 21.

12. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.—2 Cor. 13: 14.
